

Dispensing Academy (Non Accredited Technical Certificate Equivalent)

About the Course

Dispensing assistants may not be in a position to commit to the full technician's course, but our Academy allows them to continue to develop their skills and knowledge, which is good for them and especially good for patients.

Entry Criteria

Qualified Dispensing Assistants

The Course Content

Knowledge units available:

Chemistry, Cells, Microbiology, Customer Service, Errors, Compliance and Concordance, Stock Control, Learners and Learning, Training and Time Management, IT in the Pharmacy, Law and Ethics, The Medicines Act, Misuse of Drugs Act, Law and Ethics Continued, The NHS, The Royal Pharmaceutical Society, The Prescription, Pharmaceutical Measurement, Calculations, Pharmaceutical Materials, Extemporaneous Preparation, Routes and Dose Forms, Blood Circulation, Respiration, Excretion, Skin, Eye etc, The Nervous System, Endocrine, Growth Development and Reproduction, Nutrition and Metabolism, Musculo-skeletal, Diseases and their Causes, Drug Action, Contra-indications, Interactions etc, Gastro-intestinal disease, Drugs affecting Eyes, Ears etc, Blood disorders, Skin disorders, Intra-venous therapy, Drugs that affect the CNS, Drugs that affect the Endocrine system, Infection, Malignant disease and Immunosuppression, Drugs that affect the Respiratory System, Drugs that affect the Cardio-vascular system

The Production Facility, Cleanroom Equipment, Contamination - source and control, The Production Process, Legislation, Principle of QA and QC, Use of appliances and dressings, Drug Tariff, Supply to Care Homes, Health Promotion, IT Skills, Presentation Skills, PowerPoint for Presentations

Qualification

Learners will be certificated for each unit they complete. Learners who progress to the full Level 3 course delivered by Buttercups can have their Academy work accredited. This must be undertaken prior to three years after completion.

Price

On-line Units: £50

Paper-based Units: £100

Additional Units after the Technical Certificate Equivalent -

On-Line £15 / Paper-based £40

The full Technical Certificate Equivalent -

On-Line £500 / Paper-based £550

All prices exclusive of VAT

